Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

Volume 52, Issue 34

January 17, 2003

This week

Our Special Guest today is Jill Vinson, Special Agent from the FBI's Violent Crimes Task Force. She is here to talk about violent crimes.

Next week

Andres Sanchez, who ran as a write in candidate for Mayor of Oxnard, will be here to tell of the problems faced in doing this thankless thing.

Last week

Grace Hoffman, Assistant City Manager of Oxnard, decided to stop by and kick around the ideas for Oxnard's Centennial Celebration. There are a large number of events, some of which our Bored may well decide we should be involved in. Not only that, but Grace was a wonderful sport and the meeting was hugely lively. If you missed it, you are poorer for it.

We were visited by a contingent of the Big Red Lions, but the meeting was so much fun, they were not much of a factor in the merriment.

Musings from Maggio

This week we will have four members of the Santa Paula Lions Club pay us a visit. Last week's visitors had a good time so the word must have gone out to others.

Our Zone Chairman Lion Rick is also planning visitations for our club. He will be preparing a schedule which will include clubs in El Rio, Ventura, Carpenteria, Pleasant Valley, and Santa Barbara.

Membership Chairman Lion Mike has requested time at our meeting this Friday to present a special project that he says will please every member of the club. He refuses to provide any details so we just need to wait and all hear it at the same time.

Our Bored Meeting will be held the last Weds of the month (Jan 29th) at Carrows Restaurant, Back Room, at 6:00P.M. Once again we request your suggestions for future meetings. The Bored will consider future activities including the Strawberry Festival in May, a fun event in March, and participation in the Centennial Program.

Winners

Lion Scoop LISKEY has free fines (watch out for the jokes), while Lion ZC Rick SMITH is our Greeter. We have had a string of winners for the Attendance Prize: Lion D Dave TAPIE picked up only $5 last week and Lion D Mike PLISKY will pocket only $5 if he shows today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Larry SEGUIN took aim at $259, but was shot down.

Visit the webpage

After years of neglect, Lion BE Toby SCOTT has finally updated the Noontimers web page. Hardly anyone submitted their business for listing on the pages, so he has abandoned that as a draw and has moved the Bulletin Calendar to the website. Visit www.noontimers.org and then click on Calendar. You'll be surprised and amazed to see it there and up to date.

New Addition to Family

Ventura County Computers has a new addition to the family. Our CFO (Chief Fido Officer), Roxy, is no longer the only canine at the shop. We have a new intern, Margaurite. Stop by to scratch her ears. Too bad Lion D Karl DAME isn't around any more, considering how fond he was of Roxy.
