

The Lions Din

Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

www.noontimers.org

Volume 52, Issue 36

January 31, 2003

This week

Today is an open meeting. Lion 1VP Ross OLNEY is getting the hang of how things are supposed to work. Time to promote him to something he can't do.

Next week

Jim Naylor, promoter at Ventura Raceway, will be here to discuss the past problems with the fair board and the future of the raceway. If you had looked at the Calendar on the Noontimers web page, you'd already know this. Today's bulletin is up already — half an hour before the meeting for those interested. Thanks to the torrent of suggestion, your BE has added the URL of the webpage to the masthead above.

Last week

Andres Sanchez, who ran as a write in candidate for Mayor of Oxnard, has decided to run officially next time and he is starting early. With his proposal to close Oxnard Airport and build schools in its place, it's questionable how many Noontimer votes he got. We aren't too excited by education, but we sure like expensive toys.

Musings from Maggio

Bored Happenings: Approved revisions to the Marble Malarkey Game as follows-$100 seed money provided by club, 50 marbles at start of game, eliminated $10 option -- all effective immediately.

The following members will serve on a Committee and provide recommendations at the next meeting on Reimbursement Policy for attendance at District and International events -- Pres Lion Dick, Past Presidents Lion Skip and Lion Andy, and Secretary/Treasurer Lion Carl. Lion Bedford and Lion Andy will Co-Chair a Noontimers Picnic. Approved a Recognition Program that will recognize Non-Profits that serve the community. Lion Bedford, Lion Jim and Lion Ross will implement.

Approved Noontimer participation in the Centennial Events and Strawberry Festival, Lion Will is Chair. Instituted a Badge Ordering Policy for new members and Past Presidents. Approved a Lifetime Membership for Lion Karl Dame.

At today's open meeting Lion Mike will present a new Membership Program and Lion Will plans to discuss holding a future Noontimers meeting at the Port!

[Editor's Note: Since this was the full report, I guess we have no new members. Sorry, Lion Todd, it looks like you'll be buying lunches for another month. Non-Lion Dennis, you'll have to wait!]

Winners

Lion Byron WEDEMEYER has Free Fines today, while Lion D Karl DAME is our Greeter. Should we fine him if he doesn't show up? Lion Bedford PINKARD picked up his $5 Attendance Prize, so Lion TT Marv LONG will collect a paltry $5 if he shows today. Lion 1VP Ross OL-

NEY picked up his $273 in the Mad Marble Malarkey, so we drew for what should have been $212, was announced as $12 and will now be $112. Amid all the confusion, who knows who drew what?

'Tis the Season

Wow!!! Look at the Calendar below. Is this a happening club, or what? How'd you like to be the BE who tries to fit all those items into this tiny space every week?

It's like that nearly every year at this time. After White Cane Daze, the Holiday Party and the rest of the non-Noontimer events surrounding the new year, not much happens for a couple of months.

Please help. If you know of anything of interest to the club, please let your BE know. If something amusing happens to you or another Noontimer, place the call. This will be a better club for it.

Calendar

February 5 _____ Lion PDG Richard WATTS' birthday