This week

Our Special Guest today is Oxnard City Manager Ed Sotelo who is here to talk about the state of the city of Oxnard, and the problems of being a city manager.

Next week

John "Bat" Masterson, former world class race car driver will be here to talk about the innovative "Lifeline" program for seniors in Ventura County

Last week

We had two meetings last week, the fun one on Tuesday at the Harbor and the "regular" one on Friday with the Zone 7 Student Speaker Contest. Since we only had one contestant, we didn't waste too much time and it was an interesting speech on the problems of Israel and the Palestinians.

Musings from Maggio

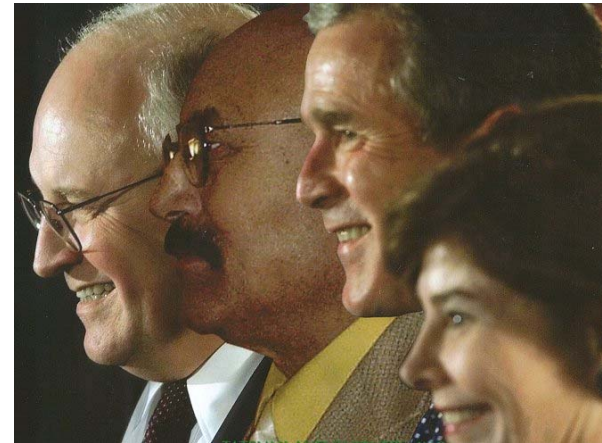

Guess his muse was missing because there were no musings from Maggio this week.

Winners

Lion Bedford PINKARD has Free Fines, while one of our judges at the speech contest, Pastor Brian Elster, won the coveted Greeter position. Because Lion Chris PACHANA was sitting next to Brian, Presidential Decree says that Lion Chris is our de-facto Greeter. Gee, it will be a real thrill to be greeted by a Glock.

Lion Bedford picked up his $10 Attendance Prize, so Lion D Todd REHANEK will only pocket $5 if he makes it today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey our president, Lion Dick MAGGIO took dead aim at $168 and missed. He needed a Glock.

Zone 7 Meeting

This evening, we are hosting the Zone 7 Meeting at the offices of Lion Zone 7 Chairman Rick SMITH. There will be free booze and some appetizers and as all Noontimers are invited, we expect a good turnout. Come see the riveting excitement of a Zone meeting in action at 2175 Goodyear Avenue, Unit 117, Ventura. From Oxnard go north on Victoria, left on Olivas Park, right on Telephone, right on McGrath, right on Goodyear, right at the second driveway and go to the back corner of the building for unit 117.

Visitations

We have several visitations to other Lions Clubs over the next couple of months. New members should avail themselves of the opportunity to see what other clubs do while getting to know their fellow Noontimers. Lion VC Rick SMITH (wearing his other hat) has scheduled 4 visitations. All Noontimers should make at least one of these. Talk to your friends and all go to one (or more).
