

THE LIONS DIN

Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

WWW.NOONTIMERS.ORG

Volume 52, Issue 50

May 2, 2003

This week

Our Special Guest today is Kathy Leahy who is here to talk about Goodwill Industries and what it does, and why we should all buy our clothes there. Lion Ross reports that he purchased one of his favorite sports coats from them for the gigantic sum of $3.50. And no snide comments from the rest of the peanut gallery that his wardrobe "Looks like he got it at the Salvation Army," either. He dresses better than 90% of the Noontimers. Well, sure, that's not saying much. But it should still keep some of you still.

Next week

Tom McLaughlin will be here to discuss the problems of the homeless shelter at the Armory in Ventura, and where Oxnard stands on this matter.

Last week

It was open. Sort of. We installed two new members, Lions Dennis AMICK and Otto SCHIMMEL, into the fold. Lion ZC Rick SMITH is starting to get the hang of things. His installation had a decent amount of dignity, covered the required subjects, was Noontimer short and had humor.

Musings from Maggio

Bored Happenings: Approved plans for

Installation Dinner on June 30th. 1st VP Lion Ross and his team have a great evening planned: Theme -- Hillbilly; Entertainment -- the internationally acclaimed IRON MOUNTAIN BOYS.

We approved

Sponsorship of Oxnard HS for the Academic Decathlon in the amount of $500; Approved $100 to construct a Century Garden at the VA Medical Center, a joint project with the PV Lions Club; Heard a report from Lion Rick on plans for the Club's Golden Jubilee in November, a quality event is being planned in conjunction with the District Cabinet Meeting scheduled for the same weekend; Our Financial report looks good no excessive back dues owed by members.

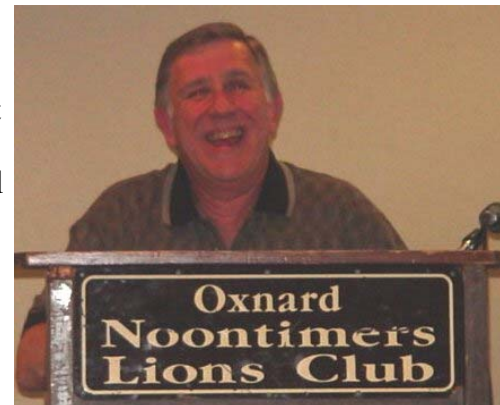

Community projects help still needed from Noontimers: Strawberry Festival see Lion Will; Centennial Parade Souvenirs see Lion

George.

Lion Mike sez "Don't leave the house without thinking about your Buddy or take him to the meeting no matter how big or small he may be." Thanks to Lion Todd for hosting the Bored Meeting !!!!

Winners

Lion D Todd REHANEK has Free Fines, while Lion D Dave TAPIE is our Greeter. Lion D Mike PLISKY was here when his name was called, so he will pocket $10 if he shows today. And it is highly likely he will show as he also won the Mad Marble Malarkey to the tune of $267. Considering that he was acting Secretary/Treasurer, there should be an investigation and his prizes should be held up. But he'll be here to try to steal our money.

Elections

Unfortunately, it looks like someone is actually going to win this election. Since we have not a single uncontested race, everyone is probably going to win. Like anyone cares. Anyway, this is the third reading. We can hold our election next week.
