This week

You can't tell it from the Bulletin shells, but it is the first meeting of the new regime. Welcome Lion President Ross OLNEY.

Visiting us today will be a contingent of dignitaries, led by Lion DG George STEW-ART. Lion George decided to make us one of his first visitations. Whether this is because he was anxious to see us or just wanted to get the troublemakers out of the way is yet to be determined.

Next week

Janet Sederquist will be here to tell us what the Oxnard Convention and Visitor's Bureau does, and where it is going.

Last week

Lion IPP Dick MAGGIO said his farewells at the final meeting of the year — which was otherwise open. Not many Noontimers are into sentiment, so attendance was light.

Ramblings from Ross

My fellow Lions. It seems our IPP Dick MAGGIO is neglecting his duties to Shepard our incoming president of the responsibilities of his office. One of those is being able to expose his views on Lionism weakly. And as if to start off in typical Noontimer fashion our President Ross OLNEY as of press time has not submitted his article for publication. This happening from someone who makes the claim of being a published writer is certainly unforgivable and deserving of some heavy fines. Lion Toby SCOTT has asked me to fill in his place. With all that said I would like to announce our first visitation of this Lion year to the Pleasant Valley Lions Club on July 22nd at 6:00 pm. They are having their 2nd annual Wine & Food Festival at their regular meeting. Lion Todd & his Lovely Marta attended and can attest to what a great event it was. I expect a good turnout from this club for this event. [Editor's Note: Lion RC Rick SMITH sent this — along with 5 pictures of him. If Lion Ross can't learn to submit a report, we'll see lot of Lion Rick.

Winners

Lion 2VP Dennis AMICK has Free Fines, while Lion Dave TAPIE is our Greeter. Lion Chris PACHANA wasn't here when his name was called, so he doesn't qualify for the $10 Attendance Prize. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion 1VP Will BERG got the wrong marble and lost his chance at $145.

Is he running???

Supposedly, Lion D Mike PLISKY is contemplating running for the 23rd Congressional seat currently held by Lois Capps. When queried, Lion Mike replied: "Uh." And then said something about money and marriage.

Lion Chris PACHANA is continuing to apply the pressure, so a reluctant Lion Mike may yet cave in. Whether Lion Mike's wife, Mabi, signs onto this agenda is yet to be seen.

Look who's talking

Lion RC Rick SMITH and his wife, Mary, were caught schmoozing with Francisco Gamboa, the consul from Mexico.

Armed with that picture, nearly anyone should be able to blackmail Mr. Gamboa for big bucks. Who would consort with a long-haired hippy Noontimer?

At the centennial

City Councilman Varragosa spent quite a bit of time talking about his affiliation with the Rotarians, but Lion Bedford PIMKARD mentioned the Oxnard Noontimers or Lions not at all. Lions IPP Dick MAFFIO and RC Rick SMITH are pictured attending the Oxnard Centennial Celebration, but the picture of Lion Bedford was jerked.
