Volume 50, Issue 3

July 25, 2003

This week

It is the last meeting of the month and is scheduled to be open.

Next week

Lydia Ledesma Reese, President of Oxnard College, will be here to bring us up to date on events at the college.

Last week

Janet Sederquest was supposed to be here, but she had a family emergency and was unable to attend. Hopefully, she will make it later, so she can bring us up to date on the Oxnard Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Ramblings from Ross

Here's some good news. Your president, Boss Ross, will not be attending this meeting. Every year during the County Fair I volunteer as a judge, and where many question putting me in this delicate position, I am always ready and willing to serve even though it takes considerable time. In fact,

I'll be gone three times between now and the end of August, so enjoy!

Today it will be First Veep Will Berg handling things with his usual humor and courtesy. Since it's an open meeting, how far wrong can he go?

Meanwhile, the Ventura Lions are still asking for our help in handling the parking at the Fair, for six bucks an hour. Anyone willing to volunteer should call them and pick a shift. The guy to contact if you want to work the parking at the Fair is Richard Baker, past president of the Pleasant Valley Lions. His number is 484-4066.

I'll be back next week.

Winners

Lion BE Toby SCOTT has free fines today, while Lion Pat RIGGS is our Greeter. Lion Sig ASKVIK wasn't here when his name was called, so he doesn't qualify for the $20 Attendance Prize. Lion Loyal FRAZIER missed his chance at $164 in the Mad Marble Malarkey.

Visitations

The good news: The Pleasant Valley Lions Club had a fabulous event and the Noontimers who attended had a wonderful time. The bad news: Even though 5 Noontimers agreed to go, only two made it. Lions IPP Dick MAGGIO and BE Toby SCOTT attended, along with Lion Dick's wife, Betty, as well as Betty's sister and brother-in-law. So, we did have 5 people from the Noontimers visiting, but only two Noontimers — not enough for an official visitation, so we couldn't steal the paraphernalia.

They had 7 varieties of wine, about the same number of beers, an open bar where you could get something stronger, dozens of different noshes, a fabulous meal and tons of desert items. And they wouldn't charge us for the feast.

Why weren't there more Noontimers?

Sending our prayers

Lion Larry SEGUIN's wife, Brenda, had her gall bladder removed — along with a softball-sized gallstone. Unfortunately, the infection spread so she has been in extreme pain while they tried to get the infection under control. She came home Wednesday, but still hurts considerably.

All Noontimers send their prayers to Brenda and the Seguin family.
