Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

Volume 50, Issue 10

This week

Our Special Guest today is Pati Longo (your Bulletin Editor apologizes in advance for any misspellings. Lion P Ross OLNEY spells her first name "Patty," while Program Chairman and IVP Lion Will BERG spells it "Pati." Hopefully, the Program Chairman is correct.) Pati will speaking on the problems of aging — not that anyone here needs to hear what she has to say. She should find a club with a bunch of old farts in it.

Next week

Chris King, recently retired after 30 years with the U.S. Customs Service, will be here to talk about customs, smuggling and terrorists. Should be fun.

Last week

Was the last Friday of the month and was open.

Ramblings from Ross

I'm sure everyone will be delighted to see that I am back today, and should be a regular attendee from now on. The fair is over, my vacation to Lima,

Ohio (I know, I know, who would ever go to Lima, Ohio, for a vacation, but that's another story), is over, and I'm back in the saddle. If you want to know about cross-country train riding, not on the rods but in a room, something I had been wanting to do for years, just ask.

Lion Will will not be here today, so I'll take over in introducing Patty Longo, who I understand will talk to us about the problems of aging, not that that touches any of us, of course.

And we'll look forward to the reports from various hard-working committee chairmen who are setting up events for the near future.

Good to be back with the Lions.

Winners

Lion 2VP Dennis AMICK has Free Fines for the second day in a row. He should be fined for being so lucky. Lion Gimpy GOSNELL is our Greeter. He'll probably trip us with his crutches when he tries to greet us. Lion D Dave TAPIE was here when his name was called, so he'll enrich himself by $15 if he shows today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Irv TUCKER (representing the old fogies table) missed his shot at $220.

Winners

Lion RC Rick SMITH spent Sunday with the Simi Valley Lions and friends at the Eyemobile Screening event. This was a great event and one our club should consider for our community. Of course, in true Noontimer fashion, while all the other Lions were helping to screen people with health problems, Lion Rick was blowing bubbles.
