This week

It's open, other than our election of officers. The Bored didn't mention an election or anything pertaining to an election. No one "in management" has decided to hold an election, so your Bulletin Editor has decided to create ballots and hold one himself so he can stop publishing the space-wasting listing of officers. We need to publish the list three times before holding the election. Today is the fifth publication of the list.

Next week

The DA's office will be sending Senior Deputy District Attorney Mr. Ernesto Acosta to speak on issues concerning Sexual Assault crime.

Last week

Carlotte Poe from 'Free Thinkers of Ventura County,' decided to drop by and provide her very personal vision of reality.

Ramblings from Ross

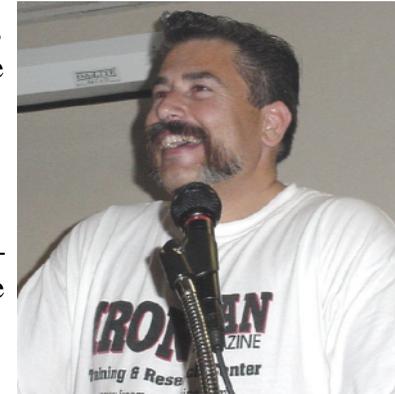

Alas, I will not be with you this morning.

But I know you will do just fine without me in view of the fact that First VP Lion Will, who may or may not be with you, and Second VP Lion Dennis, who will be with you, can run things very well. I promised to be at an annual function with Sheriff Bob Brooks, and I know you wouldn't want me to be arrested for not showing up. Your Bored is narrowing down to making a substantial donation to the library under construction in Oxnard, with a room devoted to sight impaired adults and kids. In the room will be large print books, books on tape, that sort of thing. Immediate Past President Lion Dick Maggio is determining how the Noontimers can be recognized if we go this way. If you have any input on this matter, speak to any bored member.

Now, enjoy your lunch and only fate can say whether there will be a winner in the mad marble malarkey contest before I return.

Winners

Lion D Otto SCHIMMEL has Free Fines, while Lion Mike PLISKY has been selected as our Greeter. Lion Ralph SUTTON wasn't here when his name was called, so he didn't enrich himself to the tune of $25. Lion TT Scoop LISKEY had his number called for the Mad Marble Malarkey, but missed $566. Had he won, would he have had to pay a fine? Inquiring minds want to know.

We have now run the slate of officers for the fifth week. Do you think that someone in the

Crop Walk

Lion Larry SEGUIN was recently recognized for his efforts in the Ventura County Crop Walk — a nationwide effort to raise funds to feed the hungry. Of the total funds raised in each area, 1/4 of the money stays in the local area, with the remainder distributed nationally and internationally.

The top 25 people in the County were recognized with a "Crop Walk Tote Bag." Lion Larry was the top fund raiser in his church, Trinity Lutheran, and in the top echelon in the county.

Lion Larry was thrilled to raise funds for the cause, but unfortunately, at the 4 mile mark, Lion Larry's bad knee gave out and he had to call Brenda to come pick him up. This is the same knee he broke while playing softball with the Noontimers in 1990. Will the knee ever stop haunting him?
