This week

Our Special Guest today is Kerry Forsyth with the Ventura County Transportation Commission better known as VCTC. Kerry will update us Lions about the going's on with the County's road building and maintenance situation as well as the ½ cent sales tax they want us voters to pass.

Noontimer's installation ceremony, chaired by First Veep Lion Will Berg, on June 11. That's less than a month away now. The theme is "Cowboys and Cowgirls," which should be fun. The date is Friday night, June 11, right here at the Residence Inn.

Let Lion Will know you're planning to be there, but not today, since Lion Will won't be here today. He's in Sacramento, advising Governor Arnold on Harbor matters.

Next week

Unknown. Lion IVP Will BERG is out of town.

Last week

Lisa Lyytikainen, Senior Deputy District Attorney and Unit Supervisor for the Sexual Assault and Family Protection Unit dropped by to explain how we are all going to jail. She didn't give us much sympathy, either.

Ramblings from Ross

I don't mean to flog a dead horse, since this horse isn't dead at all, but I want to remind you again to sign up for the gala

Winners

Lion IPP Dick MAGIO has Free Fines today, while Lion D Todd REHANEK is our Greeter. Lion TT Scoop LISKEY managed to be here to qualify for the $25 Attendance Prize, which he'll pocket if he manages not to break his leg today. In the Mad Marble Marlarkey, Lion Chris PACHANA took dead aim at $592, and despite being an expert marksman, was wide right.

Installation

OK, all you cowboys and cowgirls make your plans to attend the Noontimer Installation here at the Residence Inn by Marriott on June 11. Festivities start around 6:30.

Lion IVP (soon to be P) Will BERG has decreed that we will all dress as cowboys and cowgirls and pretend to like country music. If you plan on attending, please let either Lion RC/S Rick SMITH or BE/T Toby SCOTT know. When he gets back in town, you can let Lion Will know, also.

Convention

Lions RC/S Rick SMITH and 2VP Dennis AMICK were the only two Noontimers to brave the vast distance to Buellton for the District Convention. Lion Dennis didn't do anything too crazy, but Lion Rick and his lovely wife, Mary, managed to win the costume contest as well as the dancing contest.

Lion ZC Chuck Cassey was elected as Vice District Governor, to succeed Lion DG-elect Ron Hurd.

Needless to say, the Noontimers didn't win any awards for participation in District Activities.
