

THE LIONS DIN

Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

WWW.NOONTIMERS.ORG

Volume 51, Issue 41

April 22, 2005

This week

Our Special Guest today is Manfred Mueller, who will be talking about Homeopathic Medicine.

Next week

Presumably, it will be open.

Last week

Luz Cruz and Bob Vargas from City Impact dropped by to talk about the programs City Impact has for at-risk youth. They are looking for volunteers who would like to spend an hour or two a week to mentor kids. If any Noontimers are interested, please call 385-2488.

Lion Andy STAY also read a quite touching letter from Father Eugin (the real bush lion). Two of his pictures are on the page opposite.

Whispers from Will

[Editor's Note: Lion Will submitted a Whispers column for last week at the usual time. However, your BE had to print early and wasn't able to use the column. Hence, this is his last week's column (see if you can spot anything that might have changed in a week).] G'Day Lions. Did you know that raindrops won't form in perfectly unpolluted air. Without rain, no grass. Without grass, no people. We owe a lot to pollution. There's going to be a joint Lions installation including the Santa Barbara, Ventura downtown, Santa Paula, Simi Valley, and the Oxnard Noontimers. This Joint Installation will be held on June 18 at the Bard Mansion on Navy Base Ventura County, Port Huememe site. Lion 1st VP Dennis will be sworn in there as our new president. Tickets are $25 per person and all Oxnard Noontimers are encouraged to attend.

How many U.S. Presidents died broke? At least four. Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe, William Henry Harrison and U.S. Grant, maybe more.

Don't forget the District convention taking place up in Santa Maria at the end of the month. There's no truth to the rumor that Michael Jackson will make an cameo appearance. The phrase 'tit for tat' came from the Dutch 'dit vor dat' meaning 'this for that'.

Winners

Lion C Andy STAY has Free Fines today, while Lion Sig ASKVIK is our Greeter. Wonder what language he'll greet us in?

Lion Byron WEDEMEYER, despite promising that he wouldn't be there, picked up his $20 Attendance Prize, so Lion Barry BRAFF only lost a chance at $5 by failing to make one of his rare appearances. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Dick MAGGIO did manage to hold the winning ticket, but alas not the winning marble, thus missing his shot at $157.50.
