Our Special Guest today is Linda Braunschweiger, Executive Director of the newly formed Rebuilding Together Ventura County, an organization dedicated to preserving and revitalizing houses and communities. Linda is here to discuss community investment and what we can do to make our community better.

Johnathan Light, Attorney and expert on Baseball, paid us his second visit — The Cultural Encyclopedia of Baseball, Second Edition just came out. If there's a third edition, we'll probably see him again. Mr. Light is a senior partner at Nordman, Cormany, Hair & Compton and expert on employment law.

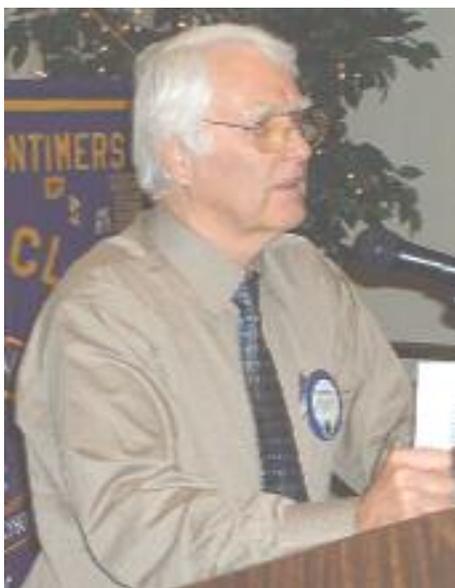

The pictures were fascinating and he sold several copies of his book. Someone must have liked it.

It's the last Friday of the month and hopefully open. Bring your best jokes.

My thanks to Lions Chuck Conway, Dave Migocki, Rick Smith, Toby Scott and Will Berg for their participation and contribution to this years plan for the Noontimers. Their input and enthusiasm for this years activities will benefit us all.

Lion Dave Migocki is leading the first Oxnard Golf Classic and Social to be held at River Ridge Golf course on September 9, 2005. He has tentatively arranged Starting Times beginning at 2 PM for five foursomes. Social and bragging begins after golf at the No-Host bar in the Club House. Cost is $30.50 and of course Guests are welcome. Prizes and Fun...the more the merrier. Lion Dave may be called at 482-6381 or emailed at: mi-goeki@adelphia.net.

There is a sign-up sheet on your table.

July's board meeting will be at Lion Todd's home beginning at 6 PM next Wednesday, July 27.

Winners

Lion Loyal FRAZIER had a senior moment. He purchased multiple tickets for the regular raffle when meant to purchase them for the Mad Marble Malarkey. As a result, he is the first Noontimer in history to be our Greeter at the same time as he has Free Fines. Naturally, he didn't win any money as a result of his error. Lion 1VP Otto SCHIMMEL was here, so he pocketed the whopping $5 Attendance Prize. Lion Larry SEGUIN wasn't here, so he didn't qualify for this week's $5. Today we draw for $10. In the MMM, your substitute Secretary neglected to write who the loser was, but he missed $310.50.

whomever and bring them. It's a wonderful introduction to our club for prospective members. The only way this will be successful is if everyone starts thinking, planning and inviting now. Please do so. With your help, we can make this a fabulous event. Who knows, some of the stories may go down in Noontimer history.

Golf tournament

Lion David MIGOCKI, fresh from his fabulous organization of the Strawberry Festival beer booth, is organizing a golf tournament.

We have slots for 24 golfers on September 9 starting at 2 PM. Afterwards we will retire to the club house for no-host drinks and food. We will have some silly awards and lots of Noontimerly fun.

All Noontimers are encouraged to bring guests. Talk to your friends, relatives, friendly strangers or
