It's open.

Last week

Was open (unscheduled).

Next week

May be open. Depends.

Amickable comments

Wow! Tempus Fugit. Two weeks before the Installation Party. I can't tell what is happening but from what I hear confidentially; I will say that you won't want to miss it. Only five weeks and Lion Otto is "in charge".

The next to last Board meeting will be next Wednesday, May 31st at Lion Todd's home construction site at 6:00PMLion Otto.

Lion Loyal is recovering from having a stint placed in his arm so that he can accept dialysis treatment, which should begin in about two weeks. He and Joyce thank us for the beautiful plant the Noontimers sent.

He sounds perky as ever and wishes he could come to the Lions meeting just as all of us do.

Prepare for Helen Keller Day

In 1971, LCI declared June 1 as "Helen Keller Day" in honor of this amazing woman who holds a special place in the hearts of Lions everywhere. At a Lions convention in 1925, Helen Keller personally challenged Lions to become "Knights of the Blind" and since then Lions have conducted countless sight conservation efforts. We encourage Lions to take this opportunity to conduct blindness-related service activities in their communities.

Bored meeting

The bored meeting will be next Wednesday, May 31, at Lion Todd's house, 102 South G Street at 5:30. All club members are invited. New members of the board who start July 1 are encouraged to attend. Free steak dinner for all.

Winners

Someone has Free Fines but your BE didn't write it down — and neither did your Secretary. Lion P Dennis AMICK is our Greeter (that we did write down). Lion Chris PACHANA wasn't here to qualify for the $5 Attendance Prize, so today we draw for $10. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion MC Mike PLISKY bought tons of tickets, was called to draw for the $256 prize and came up empty. Talk about poetic justice!

Strawberry Festival

While a few of the Noontimers who signed up didn't make it, it was pretty successful. You BE doesn't have the report from Sunday yet (it rained), but on Saturday we poured about 900 beers and received $227 and change in tips. Not bad. Kudos to Lion David MIGOCKI for coordinating this one. He got us a booth and got enough sign-ups. Special thanks to Lion John FARRAR, who served a whole shift Saturday morning, but when he saw Lions BE/T Toby SCOTT and D Pat RIGGS working all alone and falling behind, he jumped over the bar and started pouring. We caught up in no time.

Apparently on Sunday we worked a different beer booth. The crew showed up at Booth #1 rather than the assigned #2. The crew that was supposed to man #1 didn't show up until just before the event started and staff told them to run down to #2 and start to work. Hopefully, #1 was in a better position and got lots of tips.

Installation

It's June 9 and is going to be one of the more memorable installations — and we have had some legendary installations. If you miss it you will be kicking yourself for generations to come. Seriously. Please let Lion TT Steve SABEDRA know if you are coming and bring friends, family and especially potential new members. They will be impressed.

Train ride

Be sure to sign up with Lion D Pat RIGGS for the Fillmore Mystery Train. You get a fabulous dinner, drinks and a murder mystery all in one evening. People who have attended have raved. If you miss it, you will be raving, too — stark raving mad.

Lion Kirby back

Lion Kirby KANESHIRO and his bride, Victoria, are back from their honeymoon in Italy (not bad for a Noontimer). He even brought some pictures back for the Bulletin Editor. Enjoy.
