This week

It's a secret.

Last week

Whomever our speaker was, he talked way too long. We need a longer hook.

Next week

It's open. It's the last day of the month and Lion year.

Amickable comments

Most of you were there for the Installation Party so you know my words cannot describe the orchestration with which Sarah Sabedra and her committee performed. It was perfection; from ceiling decoration and gifts to the M&Ms and balloons rising from the casket and timed to the T. And then the pallbearers danced like "Pirates of the Caribbean". It was a great party. So I ask, are we sure we don't want ladies in the Noontimers?

I sincerely thank Noontimers Board and the membership for making me a Melvin Jones Fellow. I am truly proud to be a Noontimer.

Below is part of a letter from LCIF Chairperson Clement Kusiak. It is one more example of how quickly Lions respond to peoples in need.

Dear Fellow Lion,
Our hearts and prayers are with those suffering in Indonesia and elsewhere as a result of the devastating earthquake on May 29. I know that Lions in the affected areas are doing all they can to help save lives and bring comfort to survivors. LCIF will help Lions as they meet immediate needs such as food and water and then as they respond to longer-term problems.

Two days after the earthquake, LCIF approved a US$150,000 Major Catastrophe grant. Lions in Indonesia are forming an earthquake committee to plan rebuilding projects.

LCIF also approved a US$10,000 Emergency Grant for District 307-B.

Indonesian Lions are using the funds for basic needs such as food, medicine and other necessary short-term supplies.

Lions quickly responded to the disaster. Japanese Lions in Multiple Districts 330-337 are expected to make a large donation to LCIF to help the earthquake victims. For the rest visit the LCIF website.

Soon to be Past President.

Dennis

Winners

Lion Chris PACHANA is our Greeter today. Lion Carlos MARTINEZ didn't win the Mad Marble Malarkey. Our S/T combo will have to figure out the amounts (see below).

Losers

Lions S Rick SMITH and BE/T Toby SCOTT had their shop broken into again. This time the crooks got about a dozen flat panel monitors, a similar number of hard drives, all their memory, video cards, motherboards, routers, Lion Rick's fancy Ferrari laptop and the shop compressor. The picture is of the first break-in, but it's all about the same.

Mystery train

Everyone showed up early and took a docent tour. The train went from Fillmore to Santa Paula and returned. There were no fights, everyone had a good time and no one got drunk. We had 26 reservations and 24 showed up. Lion IVP Otto SCHIMMEL and his wife were a no show.

Kudos to Lion D Pat RIGGS for putting the event together. We should do this more often.
