This week

Our Special Guest today is Carol Knowles, the Community Representative for the Tri-Counties Chapter of the Make-A-Wish Foundation. She's here to talk about Make-A-Wish and (probably) ask for money and help.

Last week

Fred Morgan from Wounded Warriors dropped by to talk about the program. Wounded Warriors works with wounded active and retired military to try to keep them in shape and provide activities for them. The program is hosted at the SeaBee Base in Port Hueneme. They have an event in June and a half-marathon in September that they are looking for help with. That's certainly something within the reach of Noontimers. Hopefully, Lion 1VP Tom CONTRERAS will keep in touch and get our participation coordinated.

Next week

Who knows?

Winners

Your BE misplaced the sheets and has no idea. Hopefully, your Secretary tandem of Lions Ev BATEY and Jeff NORRIS will fare better.

Installation?

We still need concrete plans for an installation. Is anyone working on this?

Father Knucklehead

[This came from honorary Noontimer, Father Eugen Nkardzedze, Catholic Priest in the bush of Camaroon. He provided the plaque on the front of our podium and is a friend of Lion C Andy STAY.]

Big Brother Andy,

Greetings and best wishes for Lent. Pray all is well and you are fully on your feet! I am definitely coming with Bishop George to visit from 17-20 of May. He is returning the visit of Harry and Sheila Lackerdas who visited him last year in Cameroon. That is why I will stay together with him at their place for that respect. They have a dinner party for Bishop George on Thursday the 19th of May and it will be my pleasure to ask you and Flora and Ray and Barb to join us. I will tell you more. Unfortunately, we shall leave before the Lion Clubs meets, it would have been great to bring Bishop George there to greet and to thank them.

On another note, I was selected to present a paper I wrote at our University's Annual Graduate Conference last month. It went so well. I would like you to give some time and read it herewith. If the first attachment does not open, try the second.
