This week

If we have a speaker, notice wasn't given to the BE in time to publish. We are sincerely sorry.

Last week

Peggi Preston, Regional Director of the Special Olympics Ventura County Region, dropped by to ask for help with a Special Olympics event in Ventura on September 18. Our Bored should let her know if we are available soon. We have tentatively committed to help out with Wounded Warriors on September 17, so we need to have a major commitment from all involved if we are going to get this done.

Or we can select one activity and let the other pass.

Next week

Hard to know.

Winners

Lion Dave TAPIE has Free Fines today, while Lion Sig ASKVIK is our Greeter. Lion Otto SCHIMMEL was late and forfeited his $15 Attendance Prize. Some name was drawn for the $20 Attendance Prize this week, but the Secretary neglected to fill in that blank on the BE's sheet. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion John FARRAR attempted to capture $239, but came up short.

Installation

Our installation will be in just two weeks: Friday, July 15, at the Embassy Suites.

Drinks at 6 PM, dinner at 7. Lions PCC Bill Dunlevy and 2VDG Margaret Dunlevy will be the installing officers.

We need to have a good turnout for the event, so invite everyone you can think of.

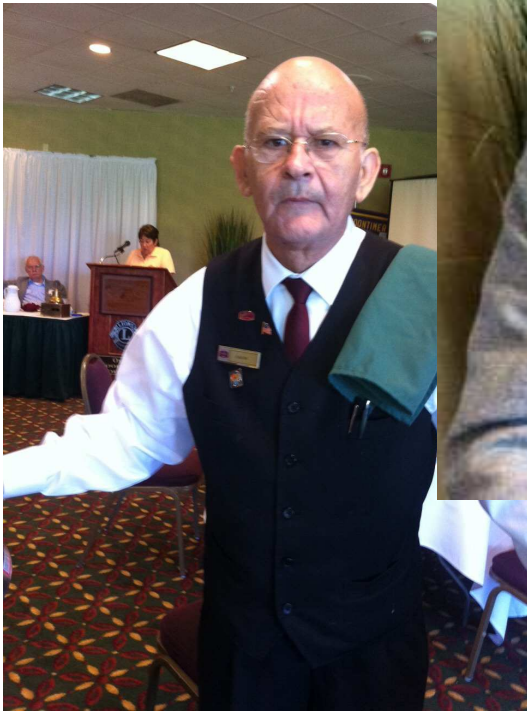

MIA

Not that anyone cares, but your somewhat-less-than-humble Bulletin Editor won't be here today. He did write this crap, but gave it to Lion Dave TAPIE to deliver as Lion Dave is Fine Free and can't be fined for the problems he was coerced into delivering.

Thanks

Your BE wants to thank Lion P Ross OLNEY for the fabulous job he did this past year delivering pictures for the Bulletin.

This week's pictures were courtesy of Lion Dave TAPIE who has some big (if not ancient) shoes to fill.
