This week

It is open.

Next week

It's also scheduled to be open. But we could have someone at the last minute.

Last Week

Maryanne Rooney, Commissioner for the Oxnard Harbor District, dropped by to talk a bit about the history of the Harbor. Rather than making a speech she asked questions and handed out prizes to those who answered correctly. Fun meeting and lots of good stuff.

Winners

It was T Tim TENOPIR day at the Noontimers. Lion Tim won Free Fines, was here for the $20 Attendance Prize and drew for the marble in the Mad Marble Malarkey. What kept it from being perfect is that Lion Carlos MARTINRZ won the opportunity to be Greeter and Lion Tim didn't get the white marble and lost his shot at $151.50. Pity.

Health Fair

The health fair is this Sunday (yes, in two days) at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Oxnard. We have pledges of assistance from El Rio, Ambers Light, Pleasant Valley, Ventura Downtown, Simi Valley and Channel Islands Lions clubs. However, we need a ton of help and there are several conflicting events around the District, so we won't have as much participation from other clubs as in the past. We need Noontimers more than ever.

Man Those Polls

Election Day, Tuesday, November 6, we will be manning the polling booth at the Coast Guard Station on Victoria across from the harbor. We will need about 5 people at all times, so please plan on attending. Lion D Pat RIGGS has started a sign up list. Please make sure your name is on it.

Cabinet Meeting

Our Lions District is having a Cabinet Meeting in Ventura this evening and tomorrow. Is anyone attending? See Lion BE Toby SCOTT.
