This week

Yes, we still have no program. At least none that your Bulletin Editor was informed of. Considering that we haven't had but three speakers in as many months, it would appear that we are speakered out.

Next week

More of the same unless something changes.

Last Week

More of the same. We talked to each other.

Winners

Lion Kalani JOSE has Free Fines — which probably won't cost us much as he's too new to have many enemies. Lion T Tim TENOPIR is our Greeter as well as the recipient of the $25 Attendance Prize if he makes it to the meeting. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, it almost was another disaster. In the wake of new Noontimer, Lion Bill GREEN having won two Marble prizes in short order, Lion Bobby MULLINS came back for the first time in living memory and pulled the Marble ticket. Blessedly, he struck out, so there's still $159 left for those of us who actually put in the money.

District Convention

The District Convention in Santa Maria was a huge success. Nearly 200 Lions and Leos attended, which is the best turnout in years. Lion BE Toby SCOTT was honored by Lion International Director Dave Hajny for his work on the District Website. Lion Toby and his daughter, Lion Jessica, also did a training session on creating a club Facebook page.

Installation

At last. The subject of an Installation was brought up at the bored meeting. Looks like we may have one. At least, your BE was left with the impression that Lion P Roman VAISMAN was expecting to work with a couple of Noontimers to bring something off.

501 C 3 Application

The bored spent quite a bit of time going over our applications, constitution, bylaws, permissions from Lions International and the other junk necessary to get our Foundation started so it will have legitimate tax-free status. Lion T Tim TENOPIR has done yeoman work getting this all together.

The club will have to vote on all the items, which will certainly challenge the median attention span of club members.

Lion Tim said he would begin submitting the papers and see what happens. Who would have thought this group could possibly have a charitable foundation? Lion Tim is too good for us.
