This week

Our Special Guest today is Lt. Jesse Rond from Naval Base Ventura County. He is here to talk about some of his recent assignments. It is an interesting time to be in the military.

Next week

For a while there, we knew who was coming next week. Today it is business as usual.

Last Week

Port Hueneme Councilman, Tom Figg, dropped by to fend off insults and offer a few of his own. Meanwhile he tried to impart some sense of the goings on in the city. It's pretty much indecipherable, but apparently the "Gang of three" are somewhat difficult to get along with. But it sure made for an entertaining program.

Winners

Lion D Ross OLNEY has Free Fines while Lion BE Toby SCOTT is our Greeter. It should have been the other way round, but acting president, Lion 1VP Todd ADAMS, was unable to follow the agenda and called for Greeter first, rather than the normal way. Lion Ross was pleased. Lion Byron WEDEMEYER had his number called last week while he was here and will pocket $20 if he manages to lug his aching carcass into our meeting. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Ross attempted to perfect the perfect double — win the $200 Marble prize while holding Free Fines. Fortunately, Lion Carlos MARTINEZ was here to thwart that plan. Too bad Loozzeerr.

Valentine's Day

Time is drawing near for our Valentine's Day Massacre, but we have no one leading the charge. Lion T Tim TENOPIR has arranged things the last couple of years, but he will be on assignment and not available. Who will step up?

Student Speakers

We will hold our student speakers contest on February 18. The students are the program, so please don't try to schedule anyone for this date.

Cabinet Meeting

The third Cabinet Meeting of the Lion year will be held February 19-20 in Santa Maria. It's pretty pathetic that our only representative will probably be our Bulletin Editor. Anyone else interested in going? Like someone with administrative duties.
