This week

This is it. Lion DG-elect Dan Lyon is here to install the new bums to replace the worn-out bums from last year. Of course, our club is so small that most of the bums are carry-overs and will be really tuckered out this year.

Last week

We thought we might have had a program because Lion IVP Dave TAPIE was called by someone who left a message on his answering machine with no name or return number that said they'd be there. They weren't.

Next week

It will be the last Friday of the month (not to mention fiscal year) and will be open.

Winners

Lion D George THOMPSON will be $5 richer if he makes it to the Installation, but he may be out of the country. Lion TT Tom CONTRARES is our Greeter, while Lion BE Toby SCOTT has Free Fines. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion D Todd REHANEK took dead aim at $229 and missed.

Activities???

As you may well ascertain by the empty spaces in this Bulletin, we aren't planning much — or if we are your BE is unaware of it.

First and foremost, we need activities for the coming year. There have to be some things we can do as a group — either social or service — to help give meaning to being a Noontimer.

Secondly, we need to communicate. If you have an activity you'd like to invite Noontimers to, let your BE know. If a Noontimer does something noteworthy — positive or negative (being a Noontimer it is fairly certain to be negative) — again let your BE know.

Yeah, I know it's tempting to think that if you say it at the table at a meeting then “everyone” knows, but it just ain’t so. People at other tables don’t hear, Noontimers forget (NO, REALLY???) and having it on paper is a great help.

Thirdly, you don’t have to be an officer of the club to plan an activity. If it’s something you’d like to do, check it out and present it at a meeting. Your BE is tied up the next several weekends or he would have tried to get a group together to go to the Reagan Library to see the Magna Carta. Maybe someone else can do it.

Lastly, thanks to Lion D Ross OLNEY who provides pictures nearly every week so these pages don’t look quite so barren.

Small Ad

Ventura County Computers has a few 17” LCD computer monitors for sale for the silly price of $100.

Yes, your BE has Free Fines. And yes, if you have Free Fines and want to insert your own ad in the Bulletin, you can. Just send the info to the BE. He reserves the right to edit to fit available space.
