This week

Lion 1VP Jim PLISKY had blood clots in his lungs again and was in the hospital from Monday until this morning and doesn't have a program — except he may talk about his “vacation.”

Lion Jim's brother, Lion MC Mike PLISKY, will be bringing him to the meeting.

Last week

The only difference between this week's non-program and last week's non-program is that last week Lion Jim didn't have an excuse.

Next week

It's supposed to be open and considering this month's track record almost certainly will be.

Tapie's Tripe

It looks like our President, Lion Dave TAPIE, thinks these Bulletins write themselves. He certainly isn't supplying your faithful BE with much content.

Winners

Lion Dave GOSNELL has Free Fines. If the Tail Twister would be alert, he could fine Lion Dave when he comes in late, before he reads the Bulletin and refuses to pay. Lion BE Toby SCOTT is our Greeter for the third week in a row. If he wins again, he retires the award. Lion Bedford PINKARD was here when his name was called for the Attendance

Prize. Should he show up today, he would enrich himself to the tune of $5 — just as Lion P Dave TAPIE did last week. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion MC Mike PLISKY, for the umpteenth time had his number called and drew the colored marble. He missed out on $209 this time — most of which he put in trying to win it back.

Day of Service

Next Saturday, January 30 is the District-wide Lions Day of Service. We will be making phone calls for Food Share from 9:30 AM to Noon.

Bring your cell phone fully charged and be prepared to use your best manners to gratefully thank contributors to Food Share for their past generosity — and very gently hint that another bit of generosity might not be amiss.

Please sign up today and make sure to show up.

New Member Breakfast

Next Tuesday is our new member breakfast here at the Residence Inn by Marriott sometime in the morning. Lion MC Mike PLISKY sent out an announcement, but didn't give a time.

Probably sometime around 7:30 AM.

We will welcome Lions Roman VAISMAN and Tim TENOPIR.
