

THE LIONS DIN

Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

WWW.NOONTIMERS.ORG

Volume 51, Issue 18

October 29, 2004

This week

It's open.

Next week

Ernie Whitaker, Program Manager, Oxnard Housing Authority, will be here to talk about something, presumably about housing in Oxnard.

Last week

Irene Pinkard, City Councilperson candidate, dropped by to tell us all the things she'd like to do as Councilperson. Truth be told, she probably just wants to get away from Lion Bedford for a while.

Actually, she had quite a few good ideas and her discussion of getting activities for kids to keep them out of trouble sounded right on.

Whispers from Will

Lion Will told your BE that he would be out of town and that Lion 1VP Dennis AMICK would be providing the “Whispers.” However, nothing has been received from either.

Winners

Lion D Pat RIGGS has Free Fines today, while Lion 1VP Dennis AMICK is our Greeter. Lion MC Mike PLISKY was here to qualify for the $15 Attendance Prize, so if he makes it to the meeting today he'll collect. Seems pretty unfair since he didn't make the Bored meeting Wednesday. In the Mad Marble Malarkey justice was half-served. Hardworking and dedicated Noontimer, Lion BE/T Toby SCOTT did have his number called for the drawing, but he was unable to garner the proper marble to win the $272 prize. How unfair.

Election

The election is Tuesday. So far, Lions John FARRAR, Michael KURLAND, D Pat RIGGS, Byron WEDEMEYER, P Will BERG and 1VP Dennis AMICK have volunteered. We need three more. Please sign up today. Lion Toby will have a signup sheet for the three shifts: From 6:30 to 11; 11 to 3:30 and 3:30 to 9 or so. We have to tally the ballots after the polls close.

Bored report

As usual, the Bored meeting lived up to its name. One noteworthy item: while most of us were asleep, we were held up. Lion IPP Ross OLNEY appears to have been the only one to notice. Lion D Pat RIGGS was alert and attentive as always.

We did vote to make Father Eugene an honorary Noontimer. Before going back to Cameroon, he will make a final visitation next week. Should be fun.

The Holiday party planning is in full swing. We have hired our entertainment: a comedic magician. Dinner will be your choice of either prime rib or salmon. Start lining up auction items. We need a lot of good items, so if you, your company, your friends or strangers you can tackle on the street have good items, be sure to bring them in.
