Who knows?

Last week

It was open.

The Oxnard City Council is nearing a decision on Big League Dreams. They will begin their final discussions this next Tuesday at their regular council meeting. It will be important for them to hear the endorsements from the various groups that this project has. The endorsements include: Visitors and Convention Bureau, Chamber of Commerce, Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club, and the Sunrise Rotary Club and members of the Parks and Recreation Commission. If you can't address the Council, perhaps you can e-mail or call the council members. I think they recognize that this project is good for the business community can act as a preventive recreation program for the youth of our community and has major community support. Here are the e-mail addresses for council:

Lion Carlos MARTINEZ is home, but the chemotherapy makes him weak and he can't do too much. He's depressed and lonely. Call him at (805) 981-9842 and cheer him up. For 25 years he has cheerfully served us. It's time to repay him just a little.

Help

No one has called the Bulletin Editor with any information about upcoming events or silly stories. How about a little help???

Winners

Lion Chris PACHANA has Free Fines today, while Lion S/ZC Rick SMITH is our Greeter. Lion Ed STYLE wasn't here, so he didn't qualify for the $20 Attendance Prize. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Bedford PINKARD was unable to grab the $228 marble.

Installation dinner

It is set for the 18th. Hopefully everyone has signed up. It should be a wonderful event.
