This week

Our Special Guest today is Jody C. Moore, APC, an attorney here in town, specializing in protecting elders from abuse. Ms. Moore has successfully litigated several cases against nursing homes and others who neglected their duties. She will be talking to us about "The Dignity of Being Heard."

Last week

Beth Javens from the Oxnard Visitors and Convention Bureau dropped by to talk about all the new hotels, activities and fun happening in Oxnard.

Next week

Last Friday of the month. Should be open. Bring your best jokes.

Amickable comments

[Lion P Dennis AMICK phoned your BE to report that he's stuck in San Diego and won't be able to get anything written.]

Convention help

Next weekend is the annual Lions District 4-A3 Convention at the Four Seasons in Ventura. Our club volunteered to host a hospitality room on both Friday and Saturday from 4 — 6:30 PM as well as serve hot dogs, wine and beer from our hot dog cart in the parking lot on Saturday. So far, we have only four volunteers. Has anyone contacted wineries or hot dog companies looking for donations? Lion S Rick SMITH is stuck handling registration for the convention and won't be available to help out at all with the hot dog lunch and of minimal help for the hospitality rooms. Lion T Toby SCOTT is coordinating the hospitality rooms, but so far no one has really gotten started on the hot dog lunch. Any volunteers to coordinate? Any volunteers to serve? We can drink and serve if that entices more volunteers.

In the hospitality room, we will be pouring Margaritas and Corona Beer and serving chips, salsa, guacamole and hot taquitos (or similar). It's not too stressful, but we need to have some warm bodies.

The lunch is more problematic. We will need people to cook as well as serve. The food is free to the convention attendees, so we don't need to collect, make change, etc. Please sign up today.

Winners

Lion Dave GOSNELL has Free Fines, while Lion David MIGOCKI is our Greeter. Lion Chris PACHANA pocketed the $10 Attendance Prize, so Lion Byron WEDEMEYER only lost his chance at $5 by not being here. Today we draw for $10. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, someone drew for $211.50 and came up short, but your BE, who was sick last week, has no idea who the loser was. Heck, all Noontimers are, by definition, losers, so it doesn't matter.

Jackets

[From Lion Dave TAPIE — second posting]

Any Lion who would like to have his name put on their new jacket ($7.00 plus tax) please contact:

Time to get moving

We have elected (sort of) our officers for next year. It is past time for us to have booked a location for the Installation. The outgoing President needs to select a Lion of the Year (which he normally keeps secret, so he may have done so already) and order gifts for his bored and others who contributed to what little success he's had this year. These are normally handed out at the Installation. It takes quite a bit of time to get these back from Lions International, so it is past time to start making decisions, get a count and start ordering. Secretary's Day is April 27. In the past we have invited wives, office assistants and secretaries to lunch. We've probably blown it for another year unless someone wants to get moving fast.

Flag Day is June 14. Will we be participating this year? It's been a while. Lion Bedford PINKARD used to handle this every year, but now is taking students to visit colleges and doesn't have time. Any takers?

Your BE is quitting as of July 1. Is there anyone who wants to take over the Bulletin? Anyone care?

Lion Dave TAPIE is trying to get a trip to Magic Castle organized. Please sign up and make this event a success.

The Dodgers have sent us an invite to attend a Dodger game. We can get discount prices. Any interest? Anyone want to coordinate?

Toward the end of summer, we normally have the Family BBQ. We need to book the venue now and get going with planning. Any takers to coordinate?

If no one does anything, we won't do anything. Someone's got to take the lead.
