This week

Apparently we have no speaker today. If you are the speaker, please accept our apology. The Bulletin Editor didn't get the memo.

Who knows?

Last Week

Bonnie Weigel from Food Share dropped by to talk about the problem of the hungry in Ventura County. Food Share is now feeding more than 75,000 people a month and only about 10% are on food stamps. The rest are paying for food, but the money runs out before the end of the month. Fortunately Food Share is there for them.

We discussed having a call appreciation day where Noontimers would go to Food Share's office and call volunteers and donors and thank them for their assistance. We did that once before and it worked out quite well. We got lots of new donations and one volunteer to be on the board. Time to do it again.

Winners

Lion IPP Ross OLNEY has Free Fines, while Lion Kalani JOSE is our Greeter. Lion Ryan ALTHOFF wasn't here to qualify for the $25 Attendance Prize, so today we'll draw for $30. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion D Pat RIGGS was unable to find the marble-in-the-haystack and didn't grab the $187 Mad Marble Malarkey money.

Challenger Football

We will be cooking hotdogs and hamburgers for lunch for Challenger Football at Hueneme High School this Sunday, November 10, from about 10:30 to around 2 for clean-up. If you haven't attended Challenger Football in the past, it is a blast. Kids in wheelchairs do end-runs, go out for passes, and generally imitate their more capable brethren. If you watch them and don't have wet eyes, check your pulse.
