if this is planned. Your leadership needs to get their act together. Fat chance of that happening with Noon-timer leadership.

Last Week

We had the postponed installation of officers. And guess who showed up to help out? Lion Past International Director Howard HUDSON. Thanks to Lion Howard and the supposed installing officer Lion BE Toby SCOTT, we got everyone installed. Whew. I feel so much better!

This week

In typical Noontimer fashion, your outgoing 1VP/Program Chair, Lion P Otto SCHIMMEL, and incoming 1VP/PC, Lion BE Toby SCOTT, have messed up communication. Lion Toby thought Lion Otto had a program scheduled for today and texted him to make sure. Lion Otto was busy and didn't respond until today and that's when Lion Toby found out we didn't have a program. Sorry.

Next week

We should have a program presented by the Ventura County Museum. Stay tuned. We still don't know

Winners

We finally had enough attendees to hold drawings. Lion LT Pat RIGGS won Free Fines, while Lion D George THOMPSON is our Greeter. Honeymooner, Lion Byron WEDEMEYER had his name drawn for the Attendance Prize (amount unknown and it's been so long it may be unknowable). Hopefully he was enjoying what he was doing more than attending a Noontimer meeting. New Lion Rick GUTIERREZ was unable to grab the white marble and didn't qualify for an unknown amount of money. Eventually, if we keep having adequate attendance, we may get the accounting figured out.

We Need Projects

We are starting on planning the Banana Festival, but that cannot be this Summer's only activity. Anyone have ideas?

Lion BE Toby SCOTT suggested an evening with spouses and significant others at Levity Live. In order to qualify for the package deals, we need 10 attendees. If you are interested, please let Lion Toby know.
