Last Week's Event

The Noontimers held their Annual Valentine's Day Lunch. Pastor Brian Elster from the Lutheran Church of Our Redeemer spoke to everyone about a special wedding. The ultimate message was one that dealt with faith and trust. For more stories from Pastor LT Thorgrimsen, go to www.lcoor.org.

Student Speakers Contest

Be sure to attend the meeting on March 2, 2007. The Student Speakers Program will be presented at our club. If you have not heard these speakers, you won't believe how composed and what great speakers they are. I know I could not do what they do.

Lions Worldwide Induction Day

President Otto Schimmel

Vision: Lions Worldwide Induction Day began with a vision of a worldwide event that celebrates our past, present and our future...an event that welcomes talented new people into our association and reaffirms our commitment to the service of others.

Action: Lions around the world have turned this vision into action by launching membership drives, initiating public relations campaigns and designing meaningful events to honor the people who will lead us into a new century of service. To carry on the tradition of service, the 10th annual Lions Worldwide Induction Day will be held on Saturday, April 21, 2007.

The Time Is Now: Lions Worldwide Induction Day is a tribute to the strength and importance of Lions clubs all over the world. On this designated day, thousands of new members are simultaneously inducted into clubs to strengthen Lions programs around the world. Press releases and media coverage advertise the event, increasing public knowledge of Lions clubs and demonstrating the importance these clubs have in helping and serving the less fortunate of the world.

An Inspiring, Motivating Experience: Few things are more inspiring than seeing new Lions join our organization. In an era when many believe that recruiting new members may be difficult, Lions Worldwide Induction Day proves that people are willing to step forward and commit themselves to helping others.

Recognize the Potential: Our association has enriched the lives of millions of Lions over the years, and yet the potential exists to reach millions more and show people throughout the world how being a Lion can bring meaning and fulfillment into their lives. Encourage your club to recruit quality new members so that your club can participate in this exciting event.

Winners

FREE FINES: Lion Todd Rehanek
GREETER: Lion Chris Pachana (again!)
ATTENDANCE: Lion Chris won the $5. If Lion Dick Maggio attends on time this week, it would be a miracle since he's going to be in New York.
LOTTO: Cathy Riggs and Betty Maggio were the lucky winners!

Marble Malarkey

Lion Andy Stay's number was drawn but he did not win the $359.50 prize. The number 7 was not lucky for him this time!

Valentine's Day Thank You

All the women (and one child) that attended the lunch were given a Valentine's Day box of delicious chocolate covered strawberries. Lion Todd played Cupid and delivered the goodies to each guest. That's one way to get hugs and kisses from the women! A Noontimers thanks to Lion Todd and his committee for coordinating a great event.

District Dinner in Carpinteria

Several members of the Noontimers went up to Carpinteria Friday, February 16, 2007 for the District 4A3 dinner. The Carpinteria Lions Club has built a beautiful building. They had a vision and went for it. Lions Andy, Rick, Toby and Steve along with their wives from the Noontimers enjoyed good company, good food, and an interesting presentation. All in all, it was a good time all around. Photos will be in next week's newsletter.
